

2017 Goodstein Family Reunion

Going back to Memphis!

The 2017 Goodstein Thanksgiving reunion will be held at the beautiful Fogelman Executive Conference Center & Hotel at the University of Memphis, 330 Innovation Drive, Memphis, TN 38152-6481 . This is a fantastic facility with staff who have been very accommodating to all our needs (great food, free airport and regional shuttle, and no extra charges for amenities). We will be hosted for Thanksgiving dinner by Jill and Ken Steinberg at their home (650 River View Rd, Memphis, TN 38120).

We will have the entire building to ourselves with nice dining areas, kitchen and living room/parlor for the hospitality room. They even have a theater where we can show old family videos! There is a fitness center with an indoor pool next door and we will be given passes.

Memphis Accommodations

The conference center sleeping rooms have one queen bed and are only $75/night. There are a very limited number of adjoining rooms for $65 each/night ($130/night for two beds and two baths).

The Holiday Inn across the street has king suites for $125/night. These rooms have a separate seating area and a fold-out couch (you will have to walk across the street to join us in the hospitality room in the conference center).

RESERVING YOUR ROOM:
Make reservations through the Hotel Reservation Department at (901) 678-5410

You must ask for the Goodstein Family Reunion Group to book a room at the agreed upon rate.

All reservations must be made by 10-23-2017.

If you have any problems when making a reservation, please email Jonathan.Jenkins@memphis.edu

Memphis Hospitality & Things to Do

Please bring your home-baked goodies and snacks to share in our palatial hospitality suite. We will have a full kitchen with a large refrigerator!

We will also have the capability to show digital format videos—please bring your family videos or slide shows of family photos to share. We will have a special feature—Jane E Simon will be sharing her family videos from 1983-1985.

Beale Street is a street in Downtown Memphis, and is a significant location in the city's history, as well as in the history of the blues.

Graceland: Expensive but if you love Elvis you should go see his home.

Stax Museum: A must see – once one of the most significant record labels in the south, today a historic museum and music academy.

Sun Studio Recording studio which has been open since 1950 and is still active today.

National Civil Rights Museum: Dedicated to the story of the civil rights movement in the 60's. Allow 2 to 5 hour to see the compelling museum.

Blues Hall of Fame: A Memphis gem for both serious blues fans and casual visitors. Visitors will enjoy 10 individualized galleries with interactive touchscreen displays along with three master databases where they can hear the music, watch videos, and read the stories of each of our inductees.

Belz Museum of Asian and Judaic Art: One of the most impressive private collections of Asian and Judaic unique art & artifacts in the world.

Rock and Soul Museum "The Memphis Rock 'n' Soul Museum tells the complete story of Memphis music history, as researched by the Smithsonian Institution.

Gibson Guitar Factory: The memorable tour of Gibson's Memphis guitar factory consists of an intimate viewing of the facility as Gibson's skilled Luthiers craft some of the finest guitars in the world.

Pink Palace Museum: From the website: "Gives visitors an in-depth and unique look at just about everything there is to know about the Mid-South, from cultural and natural history to region-shaping industries and rare oddities."

Children's Museum of Memphis: The Children's Museum of Memphis creates memorable learning experiences through the joy of play in hands-on exhibits and programs.

We're coming to Memphis!

Please list the names of all of the people in your family or group that will be in Memphis. (For those 18 and under, please include ages for Reb Chanukah presents—we would hate to leave anyone out!)
